

Traditional Latin Mass at Maiden Lane

La Serenissima – Music of Renaissance Venice

The traditional Latin Mass is sung each Monday evening at Corpus Christi Catholic Church, Maiden Lane, in the Covent Garden area of London. From May to August 2024 the Latin Mass Society's Southwell Consort will perform a series of Venetian music from the Renaissance. The traditional Mass provides the original liturgical context for which this music was composed.

The Latin Mass Society (LMS) exists to support the traditional Latin Mass and its associated patrimony. In 2021 it established the Southwell Consort as a polyphonic choir to accompany the traditional liturgy. The consort includes professional and amateur singers and sings fortnightly at Corpus Christi, Maiden Lane WC2E 2NB.
